

San Gabriel Valley Region, PCA
Big Bear-Oak Glen Tour
 Sunday, 8 September 2018

We'll leave San Dimas near the eastern edge of our region and head to scenic Rt 18—Rim of the World Highway for the climb up to lunch (or a late breakfast) in Big Bear Lake. After lunch we'll take one of Southern California's best—and least known—scenic drives: Rt 38 through woods and mountains down to Yucaipa.

At the end of the drive we can visit the orchards of Oak Glen for fresh-picked apples and real apple cider.

Wildwood Park

Wildwood Park isn't the pride of San Bernardino, and San Bernardino isn't the pride of Southern California but it's in the perfect spot to regroup and put the Targa and Convertible tops down.

The Pines Lakefront

The Pines Lakefront is right on the lake looking over a marina. They serve breakfast from 9:00 AM to noon.

Onyx Summit

At 8,443 ft. it's the highest highway pass in Southern California.

Oak Glen

Oak Glen oakglen.net has seven orchards and three [petting] zoos. The products aren't what you see at Von's—the apples are small and don't have a freshly waxed shine but there are a lot of varieties and they do taste like they were picked that morning (they probably were). The cider is really cider!
